ENJOYABLE DANCE AT CEDAR BLUFF.

Cedar Bluff, Va., October 23.—The young people of Cedar Bluff gave a most enjoyable dance on last Friday night at McGuire's Hall in honor of Harold D. Gardner, of Corpus Christi, Texas.

A dozen happy-faced young couples assembled about 8 o'clock, accompanied by their chaperon, Mrs. Charles Fields and in a short time the melodious sound of violin, guitar and banjo was mingled in the call of dance figures and the happy laughter of the young people.

The three most pleasant hours the attending parents of the young people looked on with pleasure, and the ever popular square dances were alternated with the always graceful waltz, the one-step, the fox trot and the hesitation. Time flies rapidly on occasions of this kind, and 11 o'clock came too quickly for the spectators as well as the happy dancers.

Among those who participated in the evening's pleasure were the Misses Elizabeth Hurt, Maggie L. Brown, Sadie McGuire, Lucy Williams, Mayo Hurt, Bessie Huey, Mildred McGuire, Della Ascue, Helen McGuire, Nita Ascue, Nellie Keyser, and Lucy Repass; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fields, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. McGuire, and Mrs. James McGuire, Groetia James McGuire, Grover Cleveland Kiser, Henry Norman, Charles Nixon, Carl Grinstead, Will McCall, Robert Norman, O. O. Berry, John Hurt, Harold D. Gardner, and William Weis.

I AM THE PRINTING PRESS.
Born of mother earth, my heart is of steel, my limbs are of iron, and my fingers are of brass. I sing the songs of the world, the oratorios of history, the symphonies of all time. I am the voice of today, the herald of tomorrow. I weave into the warp of the past the history of the future. I tell the stories of the peace and war alike. I make the human heart beat with nations, and make brave men go brave deeds and soldiers die. I inspire the midnight toilet, weary at his loom, to lift his head again and gaze, with fearlessness, into the vast beyond, seeking the consolation of a hope eternal. When I speak a myriad people listen to my voice. The Anglo-Saxon, Celt, the Hun, the Slav, the Hindoo all comprehend me. I am the tireless champion of the meek, I cry joys and sorrows every hour. I tell the dullard's mind with thoughts uplifting. I am light, knowledge and power. I epitomize the conquest of mind over matter. I am the record of all things man has achieved. My offspring comes to you in the candle glow, amid the dim lamps of poverty, the splendor of riches, at sunrise, at noon and in the waning evening. I am the laughter and tears of the world, and I shall never die until all things return to the immutable dust. I am the printing press.

NEAR DEATH BY SMOTHERING

But Husband, With Aid of Cardui, Effects Her Deliverance.

Draper, N. C.—Mrs. Helen Dalton, of this place, says: "I suffered for years, with pains in my left side, and would often almost smother to death."

Medicines patched me up for awhile but then I would get worse again. Finally, my husband decided he wanted me to try Cardui, the woman's tonic, so he bought me a bottle and I began using it. It did me more good than all the medicines I had taken.

I have induced many of my friends to try Cardui, and they all say they have been benefited by its use. There never has been, and never will be, a medicine to compare with Cardui. I believe it is a good medicine for all womanly troubles.

For over 50 years, Cardui has been relieving woman's sufferings and building weak women up to health and strength. If you are a woman, give it a fair trial. It should surely help you, as it has a million others.
